Program

Kathy Sebert, Coordinator of the Tulsa Area Immunization Coalition, presented the program. The film “Unvaccinated Children: An Invisible Threat” was shown. This 40-minute film was produced by California high school students and explores the science of vaccination and the problems caused by large numbers of unvaccinated children.

Kathy also discussed the increase in measles cases nationwide, as reported by the CDC, and mentioned statistics from Oklahoma counties. In 2011 over 27% of Oklahoma children age 19-35 months were missing at least one dose of recommended vaccines. TAIC is affiliated with the Tulsa Health Department.

New Business

OHSLA is planning to offer a six-hour workshop on Systematic Reviews, presented by Margaret Foster, MS, MPH, AHIP, on Thursday, Sept. 4. It will be held at the Robert M. Bird Library Computer Lab and will offer six hours of MLA CE credits. There is no charge to attend the workshop. However, OHSLA will be paying Margaret's travel expenses, and has asked that HeLEO and GOAL (the group which includes the Oklahoma City area) share these expenses.

Stewart moved that HeLEO offer to contribute up to $300 for this purpose. Beth Ann seconded the motion, which passed.

The South Central Chapter of the Medical Library Association will be part of a combined five-chapter annual meeting—"Quint Essential" in October. The meeting will be held primarily at the Denver Marriott Tech Center in Denver, CO from Oct. 12-16, 2014. Other participating chapters are Midcontinental (MCMLA), Southern California & Arizona (NCNMLG), and Pacific Northwest (PNCMLA). Registration is now open, and Early Bird discount ends on Sept. 14.

The Writing Retreat will be held again this year. It will be in the University of Colorado Health Sciences Library, and rooms will be available at SpringHill Suites, which is near the medical campus. Transportation will be provided to the meeting for writing retreat participants.

Announcements:

Morningcrest Health Library has been awarded an Express Outreach Award to obtain equipment for media presentations in the clinic library. Toni and Ruth received a Health Information Literacy Award to connect social work graduate students with clinic patients.

Tulsa City/County Library System has hired one social worker to provide services for homeless patrons who use the library.

OU-Tulsa will be hosting the NLM traveling exhibit "And There's the Humor of It—Shakespeare and the Four Humors" beginning July 8. A special event featuring the Portico Dance Theater with an excerpt from their production "Triple Will" will be held on Tuesday, 7-8 pm. Kathleen Crowther, Associate Professor, History of Science, will also be featured. Attendance is free and open to the public.

OSU CHS will be getting a second kiosk to provide patient information. It will link to MedlinePlus, SoonerCare, and will include printing.

Plans are underway for a new Clinical Sciences Building on the OSU CHS campus to be opened in 2017. A parking garage will also be built.

The OLA Information Matrix camp for middle-school students will be in Tulsa this year. Both OSU and OU-Tulsa will provide activities for the students, along with other Tulsa libraries.

Next Meeting

Time and date of the next meeting will be announced.

Adjournment

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 4:15 pm.

Respectfully Submitted,

Junie Janzen
